with Betty Allen...

There is a desperate shortage of substitute teachers in both the grammar school and the high school and James Dent and William Henley, principals, urge all former teachers or those with teaching credentials to contact them at once.

Walter Smiley was so busy during his visit here greeting old friends that he had a hard time finding time to clean out his radio shop which he is giving up. While here he sold his home at Redwood Estates to Buddy Bachman, a recently returned Navy veteran. Smiley says they had a fine summer up north—it came on Sunday.

A record number attended the Hallowe'en party given by Frank Coombs and the Peppertree Market for the neighborhood children. There were movies and community singing with plenty of ice cream and candy for everyone.

The day after Hallowe'en found all the merchants up and down Campbell Ave. out scrubbing away at windows grimly reminding each other that "you're only young once" and "remember that night 20 years ago when we put the lawnmower on the roof?" Some of the old hands outsmarted the youngsters by spraying their windows with glycerine. Oh well, live and learn.

Dick Gouley, Campbell High's ace fullback who was injured in the game last week is still in the hospital and will be there for some time yet. He has a broken bone between the nose and eye and since the doctors are fearful of infection from colds he is not allowed to have any company. We hope his friends at school are keeping him supplied with lots of newsy letters.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Werthmann are having fun unpacking their possessions, some of which have been in storage for five years. They say it's a lot like Christmas with some of things popping up as total surprises.

Did you hear about the woman autoist posing for a snapshot in front of the fallen pillars of an ancient temple in Greece? "Don't get the car in the picture," she said, "or my husband will think I ran into the place."

The oil painting displayed in the window of the Golden Rule Store has been donated by Frank Cutting to the War Chest and will go to the highest bidder, the money to the Chest. There is usually an admiring group in front of the picture and whoever gets it will be fortunate indeed.

Ben Strong gave us a list of one day's supplies for his son's company. If you're feeling hungry don't read any further. 540 lbs. fresh chicken; 175 lbs. boneless beef; 95 lbs. bacon; 15 lbs. butter; 600 lbs. potatoes; 1500 oranges; 240 cans evaporated milk; 57 lbs. dry eggs; 60 lbs. powdered milk; 15 lbs. lard; 160 lbs. sugar; 150 lbs. flour; 80 lbs. uncooked wheat; 240 lbs. bread; 192 cans of peas; 18 cans spinach; 144 cans corn; 18 cans fruit cocktail; 18 cans peaches; 60 lbs. cocoa and 50 lbs. of coffee.

Campbell High School Girl's Disappearance Causes Great Concern

The pall of apprehension settled deeper over Campbell today for there is still no hopeful news of Thora Chamberlain, 15-year-old Campbell Union High student missing since last Friday. The girl, a sophomore at the school, was last seen at 3:15 p. m. Friday entering the car of an unidentified man near the high school. An anonymous telegram received by the sheriff's office Tuesday which promised definite information in a long distance call from Long Beach led nowhere for the telephone call never materialized.

While innumerable false clues and reports have been received, the missing girl seems to have vanished with no traces. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chamberlain, and her school friends are positive that the Campbell student must have been tricked into going with the suspected abductor.

A special assembly was held Monday at the school for the purpose of eliciting any additional information, and Betty De Rose, Leigh Ave., Campbell, and Shirley Courtney, 1537 Keesling Ave., classmates of the missing girl, were able to furnish officers with a fairly clear description of the man who drove away with the Chamberlain girl.

She is reported to have asked them, as they walked past the parked car, if they "wanted to look after the man's child" and also to save a seat for her at the football game that afternoon.

While her family and friends wait in tense anxiety, the sheriff's office is working on a clue which they say may possibly lead to the whereabouts of the missing girl although they have refused to reveal any details.

Auxiliary To Celebrate Anniversary

Campbell American Legion Auxiliary will celebrate its first anniversary Wednesday evening, Nov. 14, at 8 p. m., in the Country Woman's Club. This meeting will also mark the first official visit of the new 13th District President, Mrs. Eva Dodd.

The year's accomplishments under the leadership of the two presidents, Evabelle Fuller and Gertrude Wood, will be reviewed, including card parties, the first Poppy Drive, the work of the child welfare committee, the purchase of wheelchairs for veterans and the Kiwanis luncheons prepared by members of the group. Membership in the unit has grown steadily and a large class of candidates will soon be ready for initiation.

At the close of the meeting, the Auxiliary will join the Legion at the I.O.O.F. hall for a birthday party which will include a large birthday cake.

Country Women Hold Tea

Members and guests of the Campbell Country Woman's Club met Monday, Nov. 5, for the annual Library Tea. Large baskets and bowls of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums were arranged about the club room with a white basket of chrysanthemums upon the piano.

A short business meeting was presided over by Mrs. Carl Field, president of the group, who extended a cordial welcome to all members and guests. The opening patriotic song and pledge of allegiance was led by Mrs. C. P. Klassen, with Mrs. David Rutherford at the piano.

A moment of silence was observed in respect to the late Miss Jessie Lewis, honorary member of the club.

New members introduced were Mesdames J. B. Arends, Herman Busack, R. J. Flagg, Nelson Cowdery, Gilbert Newcomb, Lawrence Osborne, R. C. Page, and Miss Ruby Anderson. The hospitality chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Selig, presented each new mmeber with a corsage of chrysanthemums. One of the club's guests was Mrs. Milton G. Francis, president of the Santa Clara County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Chairman of the day, Mrs. Lawrence E. Hendricks, presented the High School Trio, Miss Claire Booker, Miss Shirley Courtney, and Miss Nina Page. Miss Angie Irwin as guest speaker, reviewed the books, "The White Tower" by J. R. Uullman and "The Egg and I" by Betty McDonald.

Pouring at the tea table were Mrs. Carl Field and Mrs. Wyland Morgan. A group of Horizon Club girls assisted in serving. On Mrs. Hendricks' committee for the event were Mesdames Monica Parr, LBen Howard, M. S. Robertson, D. W. Clark, H. H. Wagner, G. M. Leigh and C. P. Klassen.

The Nov. 19 meeting will be devoted to Red Cross work.

Sgt. Hunter Decorated

Sgt. Walter F. Hunter, son of Mrs. Lena Hunter, Mulberry Drive, has received the Silver Star Medal for gallantry in action on Luzon. During the drive on Baguio, Philippine Summer capital, on April 21, the advance of two infantry platoons against an enemy-held hill was halted by three hostile machine guns. Hunter, then a private, and a companion crept around the reverse side of the slope and killed crew members of a single gun. Then they manned the Jap machine gun and directed fire against the other two positions, neutralizing the enemy emplacements.

According to word received by his mother, Hunter is now on the way home after 33 months in the service, 26 months of that time overseas. Besides the Silver Star Medal, he wears the Purple Heart. Before entering the service, he was engaged in defense work at Pleasanton.

The sergeant has two brothers, both in the service. At present, on a 90-day leave is Pfc. Paul Hunter who has recently re-enlisted in the army after three years' service. The other brother, Bob Hunter, is a private at Camp Beale, who has been in the service since last July.

Mrs. Walter Krohn was a weekend visitor from San Francisco at the home of her mother, Mrs. Edna F. Smith. Mrs. Smith returned with her daughter on Sunday for a few days' visit in San Francisco.

Victory Loan Moves Slowly

With 15 per cent of the quota for Campbell in during the first ten days of the campaign, G. E. Farley, chairman, reports that though the bond sales are coming in slowly there are many sections which the workers have not been able to cover yet.

Farley suggests that anyone who thinks he has been overlooked in the drive call his office at once and a solicitor will immediately call. "Gas rationing is off now," he said, "and we will go anyplace anytime."

The Northern California chairman, W. W. Crocker, says: "The many financial demands of the government, necessitating the final Victory Loan are too obvious to need extensive explanation. In addition to funds needed to pay for equipment and supplies used in the final stages of the war, there must be met the colossal cost of returning our fighting forces to their homes from battlefronts around the world, as well as the cost of caring for the wounded and rehabilitating those who left civilian life to answer the call to arms."

Croker also believes that the drive is vital as a stop-gap to inflation which threatens the country at a time when billions of idle dollars are in the pockets of American families.

Cutting Rites Held

The funeral service for William Coleman Cutting was held on Nov. 2 at the Campbell Congregational Church. His cousin, Rev. Ralph Conard, pastor of the Alameda Congregational Church assisted Rev. Carlson of the local church with the service.

Mr. Cutting was born in Iowa in 1865. As a young man he helped his father on the farm, worked on the Riceville newspaper and later taught school for several terms. One of his happiest years was spent in the Minnesota woods near Park Rapids.

He came to California in 1894 and two years later married Ruth Duncan, of a pioneer Campbell family. She died in 1917 leaving two daughters. They continued to live on the ranch, his home for 50 years. He was manager of the Duncan Irrigation Ditch for many years.

Mr. Cutting died on October 31, leaving the two daughters, Mrs. Elver Bohnett and Mrs. Verna Lusher, and two grandchildren, Lillian Bohnett and Elver Bohnett Jr., also four brothers, Frances H. and Theodore Cutting of Campbell, Carl Cutting of Saratoga and Dr. James Cutting of Agnew State Hospital.

Today is the date set for the Campbell High School faculty party at the Woman's Club. The get-together will include faculty members, their wives or husbands, the office force and the school board.

L. M. McQuesten, faculty social affairs chairman, has charge of the event and is being assisted by the Misses Muriel Nevin, Mary Lewis, Lois Gardner, Ruby Howes, Gladyce Strickland, Muriel Carson, Dorothy Beegle, Mesdames McQuesten, Florence Horton, Louise Tordt, Muriel Ponder and Messrs. Albert P. Smith, C. P. Klassen, Walter Hill and John Meischke.

S/1c Stanford E. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Lee, Rte. 1, was on the USS Wallace L. Lind when it carried the late Vice-Admiral John S. McCain to the surrender ceremonies in Tokyo Bay.

Funeral services were held this week in San Jose for Margarette Frances, sister of Mrs. Dora Ross of Campbell.

William B. Bravo, Rte. 1, Box 155, has recently received an honorable discharge from the army at Fort Lewis, Wash.

Campbell Residents Celebrate Golden Wedding

Celebrating the 50th anniversary of their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dahms entertained with a large family dinner at their home on Sunday. The date of the anniversary fell on the preceding Wednesday but the celebration was held on Sunday so that many of the family from out of town could be present.

Pictures were taken by Richard Knappen of the couple cutting a huge wedding cake which was a replica of the one they cut 50 years ago.

Present for the golden wedding were a host of children and grandchildren including Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Neuman and family, San Pablo; Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Meredith, Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dahms, their sons, Richard and Jimmy, Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Geist, their daughters, Marily and Linda, Nevada City; Mr Charles Tidd and Miss Olga Carveno, both of Oakland; Miss Evelyn Neuman and Mr. Kenneth Neuman, both of San Pablo.

Relatives who were unable to attend were T/S Robert G. Tidd, his wife and daughter and Mr. Harold Neuman of Lincoln, Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Genasci, Central Ave., had as their guests over the weekend their grandson, Mel Genasci and his bride, the former Miss LaVerne Glanzman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Glanzman, Los Angeles.

The wedding tok place Oct. 28 at 3 p. m. in St. Bridgets Church, Los Angeles, with the Reverend Father Denis Ginty, officiating. About 250 guests attended the formal ceremony. A sister of the bride, Mrs. R. W. Maguire, was matron of honor and another sister, Mrs. C. O. Plumley, served as bridesmaid, with a cousin, Miss Patricia Sullivan, who was the second bridesmaid.

Edward Genasci, Stockton, father of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were C. O. Plumley and Mel Clark. Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. L. Genasci of Campbell and Miss Nadine Genasci of San Luis Obispo. The newly-wed couple will make their home in Los Angeles.

T/3 Ted Cutting, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cutting, arrived home unexpectedly recently, surprising his wife in San Jose and his parents here who believed him to be aboard his ship, the U. S. Army Hospital Ship, Republic, in the Atlantic. Instead the Republic, the former luxury liner, President Grant, came through the Panama Canal and anchored at Wilmington.

Few Arrests In Town

Campbell Township set a new record low for arrests during the month of October with only ten persons brought before Justice of the Peace Blaine. Five of these were for minor traffic violations, including failure to make arterial stops, double parking offences and failure to have proper lights. These motorists paid fines of one or two dollars each.

A minor who was arrested for illegal passing was cited to the juvenile court, and another motorist, arrested for drunken driving, was cited to a court in the county seat for a prior conviction.

Two men were arrested for being drunk in the county and fined ten dollars each, and one defendant was arrested for an attempt to defraud an innkeper but the matter was settled by the payment of the bill.

Lt. Strong Receives Citation

First Lieut. Richard L. Strong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben R. Strong, Rincon Ave., who has recently received his discharge from the army, was decorated with the Bronze Star Medal last summer. The citation was for meritorius service in connection with military operations as supply officer for the 41st Signal Construction Battalion and stated that Lieutenant Strong had demonstrated "unusual devotion to duty, efficient organizational ability, outstanding leadership and tireless energy in coordinating the work of his section."

He procured the necessary quantity of equipment to move the battalion overseas and was responsible for the batallion receiving it on time.

In addition to his citation, the Campbell man received a letter from Edward G. Plank, Brigadier General which said: "I do not wish to elaborate on your citation which recites the award so justly deserved, but I do add my personal appreciation for your outstanding efforts as part of the advance section communication zone in its determination to meet and surpass our essential objective. Your superior example may well be followed by your associates."

The young lieutenant who hit the beaches of France the second day of the invasion received his discharge at Fort Logan, Colorado, and is at present with his wife visiting relatives in Canyon City, Colorado. His parents expect their son and his wife to arrive in Campbell next week.

W. C. Cutting, brother of F. H. Cutting and T. A. Cutting, suffgered a stroke last Tuesday morning and is reported in a serious condition.

An Open Letter to the People of Campbell

The War Chest Victory Drive is now moving into the final phase. It must not fail!

Many of our own boys are still overseas—some guarding the Japs and Nazis, others maintaining order in remote outposts, and still others maintaining the supply lines. Many others are lying now, maimed and broken in mind, in body, in hospitals here and abroad because they offered the supreme sacrifice in order that we might live.

Are these to be our forgotten men?

Millions of our Allies in Europe, China and the Philippines who faced our enemies and suffered untold hardships are still suffering.

Must their vision of victory become a hollow mockery?

At home, here in our own community, our youth needs the guidance of character-building agencies rather than the neglect that leads to delinquency; the families of our service men need help and guidance; our needy must be cared for.

Will we let them down?

Campbell has met its obligations during the war with flying colors. The Campbell War Chest appeal provides an opportunity for every citizen to demonstrate that we will not fail our own, our allies, our community now.

Send your contribution to War Chest Headquarters, Campbell Water Co., now.

HERBERT M. SHADLE,
Chairman, Campbell War Chest.

Armistice Day this year is a double mockery for those whose grief is inconsolable and for those who believed deeply and firmly that the last war "would end war". The bitterness, the skepticism, the confusion of our people is understandable but from this chaos order must be built and it can be built only on the principles that we have fought for—tolerance, brotherhood and faith in the ultimate good of mankind.

We have the heroes of not one war, but two, now to whom we owe the responsibility of not letting their sacrifices be in vain and not letting their hopes of peace be extinguished by national selfishness, jealousy and power politics.

This will not be easy, but nothing worth accomplishing is ever easy. It cannot be done with a negative, inactive belief but with a determined and positive belief and with the realization that each individual's acts and thoughts in some way influence and affect another.

A NEW LOOK AT RECREATION

By JOHN D. BLAINE

For more than twenty years this community has hoped for a school-and-community swimming pool, and postwar plans for one are now definitely on the high school building program. The pool will be not only an asset but a responsibility. So now might be a good time for a new look at the general subject of recreation as had in wholesome sports.

Before the war it was seriously proposed in England that sport be given leadership in a program of moral rearmament. At about this same time a celebrated American psychologist, Dr. Link, wrote, "While the rules and disciplines of competitive games have been developed to higher and higher levels, the codes and morals in nearly every other phase of life have been increasingly lowered or discarded."

Since then we have fought in the most costly of all wars—for the cause of human freedom, of fair play, of precisely what wholesome sport represents. Hitler was unsporting. The sneak attack on Pearl Harbor was unsporting. But had the lamented League of Nations been run by rules of sport instead of by rules of diplomacy, those who began this war would never have got to first base. The United Nations now hope for a league that will really be sporting.

In the meanwhile, on school and public playgrounds can be developed much of the spirit of fair play needed to give a new league effective public support. It will be a question of responsible feeling and will be so natural as to be virtually spontaneous, so intense as to be practically religious.

Now, children like to do what they see adults do. Hence adults can set children a sporting example in sport itself. And interest in sport fortified by a sporting sense of responsibility can make sport itself more fun.

Alumni of Pomona College residing in the Bay area will meet in San Francisco on Sunday afternon, Nov. 11, to greet Dr. E. Wilson Lyon, prsident of the college at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Albert M. Vollmer, 313 Landsdale Ave.

Arrangements for the meetting are being made by Mrs. Challis Gore and Mrs. Robert Dozier.

Past Noble Grand Club of Ada Rebekah Lodge met at the home of Lillian Ohlen, Oct. 25. After the business meeting Dutch whist was enjoyed followed by refreshments. The next regular meeting will be Nov. 29, at the home of Virginia Currie, with Myra Payne hostess.

At the last meeting of the Orchard City Grange, Oct. 23, a class was initiated in first and second degrees in full form. The next meeting scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 13, will feature reports of the State convention at Santa Cruz.

G. Martin Allen, Campbell Press publisher, attended the monthly California Newspaper Publishers' Association meeting in San Francisco last week.

Malicious Hallowe'en damage was done to the Southern Pacific depot in the amount of approximately $100 worth of broken windows.

Washington MERRY-GO-ROUND

DREW PEARSON

PRESIDENT IN MISSOURI

WASHINGTON.—The next two months of President Truman's life are filled with junkets similar to that which he has just taken through the heart of the Mark Twain country. At first, newsmen covering the White House figured that he took these trips for political reasons, but they have now changed their minds.

The President takes these junkets because he loves them. Never since that fateful April day when he took the oath of office has he had more fun than at Caruthersville, Mo., where he swapped yarns with the local postmaster, got up at 6:15 to "spit" in the Mississippi river, and ran out in the street to ring the bell of a small-scale locomotive.

The locomotive was being conducted through the streets of Caruthersville by the 'Forty and Eight" club of the American Legion (commemorating the "40 men—8 horses" capacity of French freight cars in the last war). Suddenly the President of the United States spied it. Perhaps it reminded him of 1918 when he unloaded artillery horses from those same French freight cars in the Meuse sector.

Anyway, with a shout to War Mobilizer John Snyder, who once worked behind the cashier's cage of small-town Missouri-Arkansas banks, Harry went over to the locomotive. Right then and there the war mobilizer and the President of the United States had the time of their lives staging a locomotive bell-pulling contest.

SECRET SERVICE FROWNS

Another incident the secret service men didn't like was when the President arose shortly after 6 a. m., left the austere frame 42-room Majestic hotel which had been cleared of guests in his honor, and walked down to the Mississippi river. It seems that there is an old custom in those parts which makes it incumbent upon a visitor to spit in the Father of Waters.

The secret service men, not being in the know regarding this spitting custom, were taken by surprise. One of them, however, spotted the truant President of the United States ambling off in the direction of the river, sounded the alarm, and a few minutes later, four bodyguards were trailing him.

After Harry got through spitting, he skimmed a few stones out over the river, found that his technique as a stone-skimmer hadn't changed since boyhood days, and was then content to go back to town.

On the way, he met two old Caruthersville cronies, Nearl Helm, county wholesale liquor dealer, and James Reteves, former commander of the American Legion. They swapped stories as they walked down to the post office, where they dropped in to see Postmaster Bailey S. Brooks. There they swapped some more.

BOMBS FOR CONGRESS

Six members of a congressional committee sailing to Europe last August were nearly scared out of their wits while on the Queen Mary. Headed by Rep. Louis Rabaut of Michigan, a sub-committee of the House appropriations committee had debated whether to fly or to go by boat. Finally they decided to sail—but they wished they hadn't.

The group which decided to enjoy some relaxation on steamer chairs included Dean Gillespie of Colorado, Robert Jones of Ohio, Butler Hare of South Carolina, Thomas O'Brien of Illinois and Judge John Kerr of North Carolina. Kerr had argued for the boat trip and finally convinced his colleagues.

The congressmen were just beginning to relax on their first night out from New York when an army officer came to Chairman Rabaut with a disturbing message.

"The skipper thought you gentlemen ought to know," he said, "that we have just received a code message from the FBI. They report they have discovered there are a number of incendiary bombs on the boat scheduled to go off at midnight.

"There are several companies of Japanese-American troops on board," the officer told Rabaut, "and Japan is still at war with the United States."

Rabaut called his colleagues together and told them the news. Judge Kerr's first comment was: "I wonder if the skipper has ordered airplanes to hover around the ship."

All were alerted the entire night while the ship's crew searched unsuccessfully for the bombs. No trace of them was ever found, but the restful relaxation the congressmen had hoped for was not achieved until they set foot on solid ground once again.

Construction of a new display room for L. E. Garcia, 40 W. Campbell, is now under way. The large room will be used to show plumbing and heating equipment, Electrolux refrigerators and Estate gas and electric ranges. The work is being done by the L. E. Gibson Construction Company.

The Campbell chapter of the Future Farmers played a basketball game with the Abraham Lincoln chapter of San Jose. After a closely contested game, the Lincoln chapter emerged as victors, the score being 27 to 20. Dave Keesling was captain of the Campbell squad.

On-the-job training is now giving the soldier in Europe an opportunity to prepare himself to do a skilled trade when he returns to the United States, it was learned today at Ninth Service Command headquarters, Fort Douglas, Utah.

Returning to Campbell because of the pleasant memories it holds for them, Miss Maxine Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carter, San Francisco, and Staff Sgt Daniel White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan White, San Francisco, were married here Saturday afternoon in the Assembly of God Church with the Rev. Herbert L. Johnson officiating.

Mrs. Abner Carter was matron of honor and bridesmaids were the Misses Charlene Dabbs and Peggy Carter. Serving as best man was Robert Dabbs with Hobart Carter and Abner Carter as ushers. The bride wore white satin with a long train and a fingertip veil; her flowers were orchids and bouvardia. Mrs. Carter's gown was pale pink and the bridesmaids' pale blue. Mrs. Herbert Johnson played the wedding music.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the dining room at Wheeler's for members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

The bridegrom, who is awaiting his discharge from the army on the point system, has recently returned after 14 months' service in the China - India-Burma theater. The young couple will live in San Francisco after a wedding trip to Southern California and Mexico.

"Suds In Your Eye" In San Jose Sunday, November 18th

"Suds In Your Eye", stage version of the Mary Lasswell best seller which has made over 2,000,000 readers laugh, will have a matinee and evening performance in the San Jose auditorium on Sunday, Nov. 18. The fabulous characters of the Lasswell opus are brought to life in the play by June Evans as "Mrs. Feeley", owner of the now fabulous San Diego junkyard; Maudie Prickett as "Miss Tinkham", fluttering and elegant music teacher who comes to live with them; and Irene Seidner as "Mrs. Rasmussen". The film starlet Jan Erhard plays the pretty Spanish class teacher, with Wally Pindell as her sailor sweetheart, and Verna White as the siren "Conchita".

BALLET RUSSE IN SAN JOSE SOON

The Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo comes to San Jose on Monday evening, Nov. 26, as the third event of the San Jose Concert Series. With its company of 125, including symphony orchestra, the Ballet Russe will show "Snow Maiden", "Concerto Barocco" and "Nutcracker".

NOV. 21, 1945

AN IMPORTANT DATE FOR THOUSANDS OF ARMY VETERANS NOW IN CIVILIAN LIFE

Between now and November 21, thousands of Army veterans will reenlist in Uncle Sam's new volunteer peacetime Army. Because—men who have been discharged between May 12 and November 1 of this year and reenlist on or before November 21 will be able to return to the Army with the same grade as they held when discharged.

Men with six months of satisfactory service discharged as privates will, on reenlistment before November 21, be given the grade of private first class.

Men now in the Army who apply for discharge after NOVEMBER 1 for the purpose of reenlisting in the Regular Army will also retain their present grades, if they enlist within 20 days after discharge and before FEBRUARY 1, 1946.

"BEST JOB IN THE WORLD"

These special privileges are typical of the new law recently passed by Congress. Few opportunities for a lifetime career offer as many attractive advantages.

Can you think of any other job that would give you good pay, your food, clothing, quarters, free medical and dental care, world-wide travel, 30 days' furlough every year, education and training in any of nearly 200 skills or trades, and enable you to retire with a life income anytime after 20 years' service?

There isn't any! That's why a job in the Regular Army has been called "The Best Job in the World."

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE NEW ENLISTMENT PROGRAM

1. Enlistments for 1½, 2 or 3 years. (1-year enlistments permitted for men with 6 months' service.)

2. Men reenlisting retain their present grades, if they reenlist within 20 days after discharge and before Feb. 1, 1946. The same applies to men discharged between May 12 and Nov. 1, 1945, who reenlist before Nov. 21, 1945.

3. An increase in the reenlistment bonus to $50 for each year of active service since the bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service.

4. 20% extra pay when overseas.

5. Paid furlough, up to 90 days, depending on length of service, with furlough travel paid to home and return, for men now in the Army who enlist.

6. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist.

7. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service — or three-quarters pay after 30 years. (Retirement income in grade of Master or First Sergeant up to $155.25 per month for life.) All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.

8. Benefits of GI Bill of Rights.

9. Family allowances for the term of enlistment for dependents of men who enlist or reenlist before July 1, 1946.

10. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater in Air, Ground or Service Forces on 3-year enlistments.

Cub Scouts Hold Court Of Honor

A sizeable group of parents joined with Cub Scouts of Pack 9 at the Congregational Church Friday night for a Court of Honor combined with the annual Hallowe'en Party. Cubmaster Ed Dalzell was in charge, assisted by a number of fathers.

Completing all the required work in Cubbing, and reaching the age of 12, Kenneth Stuckey and Jack Applegarth of Den 2 received their Webelos and signified their intention to join Troop 28 of the Boy Scouts. Suitable placards were awarded in recognition.

The boys appeared in regal robes suiting the spirit of Hallowe'en and "girls" far outnumbered he-boys when they were finally rounded up for judging for prizes. The following merchants contributed with cash or suitable other articles: Campbell Hardware Co., Hansen Bakery, Campbell Drug Store, Golden Rule Store, Horace's Grocery, Orchard City Creamery, Bill Penhall, Gene Hodges, Orrie Grizzell, Campbell Butcher Shop and the Cozy Cafe.

George Jeffers assisted in the kitchen, serving generous portions of cider and doughnuts.

Awards made to Dickie Lewis, Bobcat, Wolf and a silver arrow; Bobbie Dalzell, silver arrow; David Ribble, silver arrow; Kenneth Stuckey, silver arrow; Harold Gardner, Wolf and gold arrow.

Witches, black cats, and skeletons greeted the guests of Barbara Lou Lind, daughter of Mr. and Mrs J. H. Lind, who entertained her 3rd and 4th grade class and teacher with a Hallowe'en party at her home.

A huge carved pumpkin, weighing more than 20 pounds, formed the centerpiece for the table. The guests came in costumes and prizes were awarded Richard Kline and Dolores Gomes for their originality. Traditional games were played, including "Pin the Tail on the Cat", and eating apples suspended by strings.

Among the guests were: Patty Brane, Peggy Smith, Deanne Doerr, Janet Spillman, Mirdel Nelson, Kathryn Irill, Marilyn Nelson, Cara May Cornead, Runare Smith, Connie Coannes, Corrine Idarris, Dixie Porter, Barbara Manger, Beverly Ladner, Josephine Granes, Sally Bridges, Dolores Gomes, Karla Edsinger, LaVay Rollins, Billy Blue, Jimmy Rolls, Bruce Kansmith, Kenneth Cann, Roger Johnson, Veronon Jerasz, John Veiera, Grant A. Coonrod, Ronald Gripenstraw, Charles Nelson, Richard Kline, Beth Krantz, Sue Knatz, Lilly LaVequie, Lucile Lind, and Miss Helen S. Hanson.

Barbara Lou's father was unable to attend the party for he is serving overseas in the Merchant Marine.

New York Hit To To Play In S.F.

"Dear Ruth", outstanding stage comedy hit of the year in New York, presented by Joseph M. Hyman and Bernard Hart, is coming to the Geary Theater, San Francisco, on Monday night, Nov. 19, for a limited engagement. There will be performances every night, including Sunday, with matinees on Wednesday, Nov. 21 Saturday, Nov. 24, and, thereafter, on Sundays.

Written by Norman Krasna, author of such popular talking pictures as "Princess O'Rourke", "Practically Yours", "Bachelor Mother" and "The Devil and Miss Jones", and directed by the celebrated playwright, Moss Hart, "Dear Ruth" has ben running in New York since last December and is nearing its 400th performance.

Combining charm and romance with hilarity, "Dear Ruth" tells the story of a young lieutenant on leave who bursts into a Kew Gardens, Long Island home, and announces he is wildly in love with the family's older daughter, Ruth. In turn Ruth never has seen or heard of the soldier.

The notable Broadway cast is headed by Philip Ober, the original father of "Junior Miss"; Marjorie Gateson, favorite screen and stage comedienne; Randee Sanford, youthful ingenue; and Russell Hoyt, returning to the stage after three years in pictures. Among the others are such well known artists as Peggy Romano, Houseley Stevens Jr., Marilyn Sable, Charles Snyder, Betty Haynes and Terry Little. The setting is by Frederick Fox.

Mail orders are now being received and checks should be made out to the Geary Theater, self-addressed stamped envelope being enclosed to insure return of tickets.

Adah Rebekah Lodge is planning a gala event for the official visit of Ethel Louderbach, president of Rebekah Assembly, Nov. 20. The officers of the lodge assisted by the following, Hans Hansen, Julius Bachman, Audrey Currie, Harry Silver, Chas. Livingston, Fred Jones, Art Robinson, Eugene Hodges and Archie Brydon with Josephine Gray as chairman, will have charge of the evening.

At the last regular meeting, Nov. 6, Eva Josephine Ballot, Irene Myrtle Hodges and Chas. F. Livingston were initiated.

Distinguished guest of the evening was Bella Collins, district deputy president.

Committee for the evening was Ruth Livingston, Eva Dahl, Gail Plymale, Edith Soutar, and Flora Raab.

Three Campbell youths, Raymond Rowe, Bill Haskill and Ray Haskill had a narrow escape from death last Thursday night in Alameda when the car in which they were riding struck a moving train. The driver's vision was obscured by fog and the car was almost totally demolished although the three boys were without injury.

With chickens and turkeys more plentiful this fall than in pre-war days, poultry can return to the menu not only for holiday fare, but for regular use from now until spring. Turkey production is the greatest on record and this is a big marketing season for chickens too. It should be a treat for the family to have an occasional chicken or turkey dinner even before the holiday season, after the scarcity during the war years.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for November 11, with the Golden Text from Hosea (14:1) "O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity."

Included in the sermon are these citations:

Proverbs 6:9: "How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?"

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Did the origin and the enlightenment of the race come from the deep sleep which fell upon Adam? Sleep is darkness, but God's creative mandate was, "Let there be light' " (p. 556).

Among the attractions coming this week to the Campbell Theater is "Incendiary Blonde", Paramount's 33rd anniversary special, which is a lavish show of brilliant costumes in Technicolor, lively production numbers, gay and nostalgic music and a central personality from the heart of show business itself. It celebrates in song and story the almost legendary career of Texas Guinan, who rode out of a wild west show to take Brodway by storm—and make them like it. As the toast of the speakeasy era, Betty Hutton proves it could be done, and incidentally shows herself a capable dramatic actress as well as a dynamic entertainer.

In fact, her vitality gives the film its brisk pace and overshadows the characters in the story as Texas hreself must have dominated all around her. This is quite a feat when Acadamy Award winner Barry Fitzgerald is in the cast as her improvident but Irish father, and Arturo de Cordova, Charlie Ruggles and Albert Dekker appear in supporting roles. But whether she's busting broncos for prize money at a Texas rodeo or welcoming "'suckers" at $25 a plate in a Broadway night club, she takes the center of the stage and holds it against all comers.

EVERY DAY the cost of war continues in the two-way flow of ships—in-bound and out-bound under the Golden Gate Bridge. Men and women coming home to civilian life. Men and women transferred back to rehabilitation centers and hospitals. Men and women and supplies sailing out to far-distant occupation areas. The fighting war is over. Now we must help pay the bill through this final drive, the eleven billion dollar Victory Loan.

We owe these specific debts which we should be glad to pay, through the Victory Loan . . .

1. Care of the Wounded. This is a debt we can never fully repay. With Victory Bonds you lend your money to help pay for this work.

2. Bringing Men Home. It costs as much to bring men home as it did to send them over. This job has just started.

3. Rehabilitation of Veterans. In addition to mustering out pay, the guarantees of the G. I. Bill of Rights must be met for education, loans and other aids.

4. Payment for War Material. Huge sums are needed to pay for materials of war produced and used in action months ago.

Put away every extra dollar you can in Victory Bonds. Hold them for such future uses as owning your home, educating the children, for starting a business or as a savings fund for emergencies. For the last time—buy bonds—extra bonds every week of the Victory Drive.

The Book Mark

by vivian

"Cass Timberline" by Sinclair Lewis.

Meet new people in this book and soon realize you've known them before, you've heard of some of them. Sinclair Lewis is a bit more kind to the inhabitants of Fair Size City, U. S. A., than he has ben previously.

Cass Timberline, a serious judge, far above monetary side lines, falls in love with a girl much younger than he. Previews of events in this marriage are shadowed by the actions and feelings of Cleo, the cat.

Cleo really has a personality and her character mirrors the boundaries of high and low.

This novel of husbands and wives is well sprinkled with superb cynicisms, and witty descriptions. The reader becomes better acquainted with each character by his "Strange Interlude" method of revealing emotions.

Cass and Jinny, the major husband and wife, run the gauntlet of marital experiences but they manage to stay together without the "and so they lived happily ever after" touch. This author has written many great novels in his time, but none so frank as this one. It reveals with tenderness and relentless satire what is happening to American marriage.

"They do me wrong who say I come no more
When once I knock and fail to find you in;
For every day I stand outside your door
And bid you wake, and rise to fight and win,
Weep not for precious chances passed away!
Weep not for golden ages on the wane!
Each night I burn the records of the day—
At sunrise every soul is born again." —Walter Malone.

The Blue Fairies, 3rd Grade Bluebird group, under the leadership of Mrs. Boyd Rappe and Mrs. Hans Hansen, had a Hallowe'en party in the Camp Fire room last week. Each girl made her own costume out of a newspaper without using scisors and Mrs. Boyd reports unusual ingenuity was shown. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by all the girls.

On Monday the girls donned smocks and decorated Christmas wrapping paper with finger painting. Members of the group are: Sharon Murdock, Phyllis Ling, Janet McBain, Joyce Hansen, Donna Hepburn, Joanne Minehart, and Yvonne Rappe. All third grade girls are eligible for membership.

Eighth grade teachers and mothers were hostesses at the monthly Elementary Unit P.'T. A. meeting on Tuesday with Mrs. Esther Johnson, public school health nurse, presenting a program designed to show the cooperation between school, parents and doctors to help maintain a balanced healthy life for each child. Taking part in a third grade skit in connection with Mrs. Johnson's talk were Sharon Murdock, Marilyn Perata, Dick Osborne, Ray Dohoney, Gary Lukehart, Janet McBain, Dennis McCoy, Ellen Stepovich, Audrey Arnold and their teacher, Miss June Gross.

Arthur Cutting, son of Dr. J. A. Cutting of Agnew Hospital, has arrived home with an honorable discharge after serving overseas with the 40th Engineers' Band.

Mrs. Russ George and her small daughter, Carol, are in Oakland for a few days visiting an aunt.
